A Hyde Park Tradition Continues!

The Hyde Park-Kenwood Community Conference proudly presents the Hyde Park Used Book Sale, to be held on Columbus Day weekend, October 8-10 in the plaza of the Hyde Park Shopping Center, at 55th and Lake Park. Shopping hours are 9 am-6 pm on Saturday and Sunday, and 9 am-2pm on Monday.

The sale is managed on a voluntary basis by members of the Conference Board of Directors, Conference members, and friends in the community. The sale offers approximately 30,000 fascinating books donated by community members, in 50 subject categories, at low prices to suit every budget. On Monday, books will also be available at $4.00 per bag or $5.00 per box.

Books can be dropped off in the Treasure Island lower level (accessible by elevator or stairs), 1526 E. 55th St., during store hours through September.

For information about volunteering, about pickup service for donations, and about free books for non-profit organizations, call 773-419-1384.

The Conference is deeply grateful to our generous sponsor, Treasure Island Foods, especially Babe Magnus, Hyde Park store manager, and the staff of the Hyde Park store for their support of the of the sale.

The Hyde Park-Kenwood Community Conference was founded in 1949 to attend to the civic needs of the community; work toward an attractive, secure, diverse and caring community; and to promote participation of residents, businesses, institutions and organizations in programs and activities that advance the interests and concerns of the community. It serves the community as a watchdog, independent voice, and clearinghouse in the community's ongoing conversation and decisions about those matters which affect and define community life.
